Numb. 7015.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 21. to Tuesday August 24. 1731.

Hampton-Court, August 21.

AN Expreſs arrived here this Day with Letters from Mr. Keene, His Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the Court of Spain, dated the 18th Inſtant, N. S. which bring Advice, That on that Day the King of Spain's Ratifications of the Treaty ſigned at Vienna the 22d of laſt Month, N. S. by the Miniſters of the Emperour, Great Britain and Spain, for the Execution of the Engagements entered into by the Treaty of Seville of the 9th of November 1729, and by the Treaty of Vienna of the 16th of March laſt, were ſent away to Vienna by a Spaniſh Courier.

By the ſame Expreſs came Letters from Sir Charles Wager, Admiral of the Blue, and Commander in Chief of the Squadron of His Majeſty's Ships which is to attend the Introduction of the Spaniſh Garriſons; by which we have an Account, That the Squadron which ſailed from Spithead the 14th of July, O. S. arrived the 1ſt Inſtant, O. S. in the Bay of Cadiz, and that Orders had been ſent thither to treat the Admiral and the other Officers and Men belonging to His Majeſty's Squadron with all Manner of Civility; which Orders have been punctually complied with.

Sir Charles Wager, after he came about Cape St. Vincent, ſent away Capt. Harvey in His Majeſty's Ship the Kinſale with a Compliment to the Governour, and to give him Notice of his coming with the Squadron, and that he would ſalute the Town of Cadiz with 15 Guns if he were aſſured that he would return the Salute with the like Number, which is the Cuſtom on the like Occaſions; and the Governour anſwered this Compliment with great Civility, and promiſed to comply with the Propoſal relating to the Salute. The Admiral alſo ſent his Compliments to the Commanding Officer of the Spaniſh Men of War in the Harbour, and propoſed, that to prevent any Diſputes in Point of Ceremonial, no Salute ſhould be given or expected on either Side between His Majeſty's Ships and thoſe of the King of Spain. The Marqueſs de Mari, Lieutenant General or Vice Admiral of the Navy of Spain, received the Admiral's Compliment with great Complaiſance, and readily agreed to what he had propoſed. Before Sir Charles Wager entered the Bay, four Gentlemen came on board him with a Compliment from the Marqueſs de Mari. As ſoon as the Admiral came to an Anchor, he ſaluted the Town with 15 Guns, and was anſwered with the ſame Number. Then two Gentlemen came with a Compliment from the Governour. The next Morning the Admiral ſent an Officer on ſhore to return his Compliments to the Marqueſs de Mari and to the Governour, and to invite them to dinner. They both came on board him, and the Governor ſtayed and dined with him, but the Marqueſs de Mari excuſed himſelf, and invited the Admirals and all the Captains of the Fleet to dine with him the next Day. The Marqueſs and the Governour, at their Departure from on board the Admiral, were each of them ſaluted with 13 Guns. The Day following, being the 3d, O. S. the Admiral and moſt of the Captains dined with the Marqueſs de Mari, as did alſo the Governour, and they had a very great Entertainment; and in the Evening the Admiral went and returned the Governour's Viſit. At the Admiral's coming off from the Shore to go on board his Ship, he was ſaluted by the Town with 13 Guns.

On the 5th, O. S. in the Afternoon, Sir Charles Wager went on Shore and ſet out for Seville, where he arrived the next Morning; and about Noon, being accompanied by Mr. Keene, he made a Viſit to the Marqueſs de la Paz, firſt Secretary of State and of the Diſpatches, who returned it in the Afternoon; and in the Evening he likewiſe viſited M. Patino, Governour of the Council of